He will have one beef and 64 turkeys that he will put up for sale. Five of these turkeys make an aggregate weight of 128 pounds. One of them weighing twenty-six pounds, will be sold as a prize to the victor in the match. The match will be at 10 o'clock. Lunch counter will be on the ground. Hot coffee and sandwiches. Usual rules to govern contest. Cordial invitation extended to everybody to attend.

—A number of our citizens were in Forest City last Thursday, Dec. 15, called there as witnesses in the case, State vs. Frank Seyler, on the charge of disturbing the peace of Dan Gatchler. The case was taken from here on a change of venue, the prosecution being represented by W. E. Stubble and T. C. Dungan, and the defense by Sam O'Fallon and J. W. Kieff. The entire day was taken up, the jury bringing in verdict late in the evening in favor of the defendant. David Foster, who was a witness, did not return until the following day, and would have been there yet, if Squire Williams, before whom the case was tried, had not told him that the case was settled, and that he could return home.
